eat me eat me eat me....
round round round....
drink me drink me....

don't take my lollipop you don't know how to line 'em up my baby's never satisfied he always wants what I've got he don't know when it's time to stop my baby's never been deprived eat us out of house and home I shoulda known i shoulda seen it in his eyes why can't you take a time out why don't you ever shut your mouth i just can't stand to see you cry when the last time we spoke and now you want more you are a very hungry guy

(chorus):

baby, you're orally fixated you've got to give your mouth a rest so greedy, i wish u coulda waited but you just have (love?) to stuff your face what you see is what you get cuz I ain't got nothin yet at least not for a greedy little boy it's what you came to expect and I need time to reflect ain't you heard that sometimes less is more my cupboard is bare you're already there and i see thru your dirty little ploy im not gonna (??) fill u up never never ever gonna fill your cup you can't have your cake and eat it too you never feel full and frankly it's dull because it's always about you

(chorus x2)
