The smiling paper God I saw. In the forest, very deep,
Was as real, as you and I are here. And even though his heart
was breaking, the kingdom was fast asleep.
When he died that day, I cried a million tears.
A long time ago I heard a song a song I hear long time ago.
On the east side of the Galaxy, a long time ago.
I tumbled through the heavens, My sight was very clear. Laughing voices filled the air.
Frockling in happiness. Serenity was captured there
She tried to throw those shakles down, as if it was a dream. It was real as you and I are here.
And even though her heart was breaking the Kingdom was fast asleep. When she died that day, I cried a million tears.(INST BRK)
