Liar ...its almost your desirei know you got the fire and it will lift you higher now get up..get up ...get up nowhere... will you find it stronger now here you got it longer it hits you like a bomber

now get up..get up ...get up

you feel addicted to it so much you cannot prove it you know that you cant fool it back up ...back up... unless you are up to it its it and you cant change it your choice to love or hate it cause you will never beat it yeeepaaaah...!!!

when it becomes desire....
cause it will lift you higher....

then you must start the fire
get up...get up...get up...you liar

get up...get up...get up...get up .. liar deny... but never wonder why its running in your veins and spinning in your brains until you get up..get up..get up sinner...this voice you hear is inner but raise your middle finger dont let it screw your thinking..now get up ..get up there s nothing i would give even if i should cause i m blind to see what really belongs to me all the things i want expect to take i dont so dont try to make me feel i m the slave behind the wheel...!!
