I've got to the point where the pain didn't hurt
And my bones didn't break

I went so far and my tears didn't scar
And my voice didn't shake
They took me every way
And now there's nuthin' left to take

100 miles behind me
And 100 more to go, unknown hero

Its cold where I walk
Its dark where I go
And city lights are far behind

Its cold where I walk
Its dark where I go
For heroes or so they belong
It could be 5 o'clock you'll never notice
I'm a big unknown

My face don't got no rebel
Of the cold wind blowin'

Got no response coz my names up
On this sadness on my face

The ugly hand was frozen north
And once again I find my way

The ugly hand was frozen north
And once again I mind my way

100 miles behind me and 100 more to go
Unknown hero

Once darkness calls my name
One frozen storm blows in my face
