Chorus

Wildcat money!

Wildcat money!

Karl Oskar

Do you have no shame?

Dare you look me in the eyes?

All this gold you own

As I should have know

Another of your god-damn lies!

This is children's pay-

Wouldn't buy a blade of grass

These are empty things

That my brother brings

This wouldn't do to wipe my ass

Robert

I don't understand...

Chorus

Wildcat money

Karl Oskar

Worthless! Printed by a private bank-a bankrupt bank!

Chorus

Wildcat money

Robert

No! No, wildcat money is good money!

Chorus

Wildcat money

Robert

I swear to you, they said-!

Chorus

Wildcat money

Robert

Free, you are free

Not a slave, not like me

Choosing your way

As you please

At your ease

Your own master

Soon you will rise

To the crest of a wave

To be one with the sea everlasting

On giant shoulders you'll carry sailors

In tall white galleons

To far horizons

You are going where I long to be

Take me there, little stream

To the sea
