"Fade Away"

Who am I, what are we?
In this land of mystery?
Why are we so confused?
Do we live or die?
Do we laugh or cry?

Is it time for me to say goodbye?
'Cuz all I've done
Is try
It's time for me to spread my wings and fly
I've cried all my tears
They've run dry

Run, run, run away
Into another day
I see it in your eyes
Looks like you've been hypnotized
Run, run, run away
Until you fade away
And then you'll realize
There is no compromise

Well, you watch me standing here
I'd watch you
Disappear
I have lost all my trust
It's waiting for us
On a broken bus

Is it time for me to say goodbye?
'Cuz all I've done
Is try
It's time for me to spread my wings and fly
I've cried all my tears
They've run dry

Run, run, run away
Into another day
I see it in your eyes
Looks like you've been hypnotized
Run, run, run away
Until you fade away
And then you'll realize
There is no compromise

[Whoa!]
[Watch me cry awake]
[Gotta find my way]
[I'm gonna fade away]

Run, run, run away
Into another day
I see it in your eyes
Looks like you've been hypnotized
Run, run, run away
Until you fade away
And then you'll realize
There is no compromise
