"Who We Really Are"

Im wondering why Im here and where you are.
Can you hear me or
are we too far.. away.
For understanding how its supposed to be.
You belong to someone else and it's not OK
with me

In the perfect world we'd be together holding hands with me and so much more.
I wish this feeling could last forever
but inside
It tells me to go.

What am I running from?
Where am I going to?
What would you do if I walked away?
My reality.. is actuality.
Let me go from your heart today
(heart today)

Decisions come and go it's tough but then we grow
Im learning everyday to trust inside.
We can never see what tomorrow brings but path we lead is all we know.

What am I running from?
Where am I going to?
What would you do if I walked away?

My reality is actuality.
Let me go from your heart.

And after just a view of
who we really are,
is just a preview
where we're reaching for that star.
See how far you've come and who we really are,
who we really are.

What am I running from?
Where am I going to?
What would you do if I walked away?
My reality.. is actuality.
Let me go from your heart today.

What am I running from?
Where am I going to?
What would you do if I walked away?
My reality is actuality.
Let me go from your heart...
