Remember this. . .

Romeo

Christina Milian

Verse 1:

I remember when, when, when

Let me turn back the time on Big Ben

Let me tell you bout the story from start to end

Release the ink from my ballpoint pen

When touches the page, it reveals the messege that I send

Are you listenin'?

Let me tell you bout my first and only Christenin'

My eyes all glistenin'

With innocence of a blank page

Life is like a blank page

Ennjoy the beef, the strife, the rage

Wait, let me turn the page . . .

And continue to verbally burn the page

With fireflows that are capable of burning down the stage

Chorus:

Remember when we used to say

Ain't always gonna be this way

From lemonade to Alize

Now it's all gravy

Remember when we used to say

Ain't always gonna be this way

From lemonade to Alize

Now it's all gravy, baby

Verse 2:

Back in my school days

Those were cool days

School was the good old days

NOW!!

I tend to leave my teachers amazed

Never knew my hard work paved the way

When I talk about back in the days

The hard life

Everything will be all gravy, if I play my cards right
That's right
Mother said keep close friend tight
Keep frienemies in the distance in the night
Wait, let me turn the page . . .
And continue to verbally burn the page
With fireflows that are capable of burning down the stage

Chorus:
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to Alize
Now it's all gravy
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to Alize
Now it's all gravy, baby

Bridge:
Boy you told not to worry
Coz it's gonna be all gravy
Boy you told not to worry
Coz it's gonna be all gravy
Boy you told not to worry
Coz it's gonna be all gravy
Boy you told not to worry
Coz it's gonna be all gravy

Chorus (x2):
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to Alize
Now it's all gravy
Remember when we used to say
Ain't always gonna be this way
From lemonade to Alize
Now it's all gravy, baby

The more money you make (the more money you make)
It's all gravy
The more money you make (the more money you
make)
Now It's all gravy, oh baby
