I've worked so hard
I've fought to win
I've come so far from where I've been I have new dreams
I have new plans
I've got tomorrow
in my hands

But girl, let me tell you right at the start It all would mean nothing without you here in my heart... so

Whatever is mine
you will be a part of
whatever is mine
you will be at the heart of
whatever is mine
till the very end of time
whatever is mine
we will have together
whatever is mine
now and forever
whatever is mine...
love will open all the doors
and whatever is mine
will be yours

You've had rough times you've been through things It's hard to deal with what life brings
But to this day
out of the blue
life brought me
and life brought you

And girl, I will promise, so have no doubt my love will be something you won't have to live without...

Whatever is mine
you will be a part of
whatever is mine
whatever is mine
till the very end of time
whatever is mine
we will have together
whatever is mine
now and forever
whatever is mine...

And don't you worry about anything bringing us down there will always be enough love to go around

Whatever is mine
whatever is mine...
