Making His home with the lonely
Spending His days with the poor
Bring hope to their hearts
Giving man a new start with His cure

But not all would receive of His offering
Some even planned His decease
Yet He couldn't forsake
Those whose lives He might save
So He refused to leave

(Chorus) Never a better hero
Never a truer man
Hopin' to save us
By taking our pain in His hands
Never a greater compassion
Never a wasted day
Not one regret, true to the end
There was never a better way

Now He knew His life would be shortened
But never murmured a word of complaint
For He had in mind
A much greater design
And it helped Him through the pain

He gave men power to take Him
Knowing His death would bring life
And it was no surprise
There was love in His eyes when He died

(Chorus)

But death was not the end
For He would live again

(Chorus)

All that He did
Follow and live
There'll be never a better way
