Heaven's Father, eternal Flame
Fulfill Your Word in Jesus' name
I'm reaching upward to the realms unseen
To hold Your Word in defiant belief

Promise flowing through the grip of faith
Calmly resting in the Father's way
Mountains tremble and the oceans rage
Above the line, no fear dismays

If we live above the line
Faith is resting in the Father's time
If we look beyond the lies
Faith is seeing with the Father's eyes

Below the line is fear, distress
Dreams and hopes fall, holy mess
Ever striving 'cause it's all for me
Below the line, pure misery

Your will be done, now in my life
Eternal flowing into earthly time
Grabbing hold now with the grip of faith

If we live above the line
Faith is resting in the Father's time
If we look beyond the lies
Faith is seeing with the Father's eyes

If we look beyond the lies
Faith is seeing with the Father's eyes
