Kevin Ayers“ Donâ€™t let it get you down

So many problems, yet none at all
So many windows through every wall
So many feelings you wonâ€™t express
So many failures you call success

Donâ€™t let it get you down

You cry over losing, what you never really had Just remember the good times alongside the bad
Remember that real love never disappears
It is lost in a moment, it lasts for years

Donâ€™t let it get you down

Donâ€™t let it fool you in any way
You know your tomorrow depends on today
If youâ€™re carrying nothing it wonâ€™t weigh you down
You are the king and queen, you are the crown

Donâ€™t let it get you down
