Please don't go away
I'm ready and I'm able
Please don't go away
'till morning comes around.
Please don't go away
While wine is on the table
Please don't go away
Just lay your body down.

Now I don't know what I would do
If you got up to leave.
My jealous heart beats deep inside
And not here on my sleeve.
'cause I could show a girl like you
Such loving and affection
I don't want to make no speech
This here ain't no election.

Please don't go away
Honey change your mind and stay
Hot love's on the way
Honey let me hear you say
Yeah, yeah, yeah....

One for you, one for me...
