I was sitting there, waiting for you,
...dreaming of you
I was there, sitting by the sea,
...waiting to see
You and your beautiful face & your hands,
The way you move with grace & with no strands
I was sitting there, thinking of what,
...it could be, in love

You must be sitting there, waiting for me,
...longing for me
You must be sitting there, I am late, already
I'd like to see his beautiful face & your hands,
The way he moves with grace & with no strands
You must be sitting there, I can see you
...my legs are shaking

Hello, How are you
I'm ok, I'm fine thank you
What beautiful day, the sky is blue
Hello, how do you do,
Don't you know I Love You
This foolish things say, when in Love
Fine with you, Thank you, thank you
What a beautiful

The sky, is grey, maybe blue, just thinking of you & your eyes

Well, we can just say, that the sky is blue
The birds are singing dear,

And it's No Talking
