You're out there on the edge
Angel on the ledge
Too scared to fly
Feelin' so alone
In a world of sticks and stones
You just wanna hide

I'll hold you, heal you
Baby, you can lean on me

I will love you back
Love you back from the lonely
I will lay you down
Love you home to me
I will love you back

When your dreams have disappeared
And you're fightin' back the tears
Let 'em fall like rain

You're lost and broken down
Longing to be found
I'm on my way

There's no place you are
That could ever be too far

I will love you back
Love you back from the lonely
I will lay you down
Love you home to me
I will love you back

I will love you back
From the heartache
From the pain

I will love you back
Love you back from the lonely
I will lay you down
Love you home to me

I will love you back
