You took my hand and you lead me from the valley
Together we will stand, we will fight, we will rally
Against the storm that rages around us
Against the bars and the cages around us
Until the stars in the night turn to darkness
Against the pain that we face

We'll stand out in the rain
Feeling it falling from the sky
Washing away the pain
Catching tears falling from your eyes
Like messages from God (God...)
Like messages from God (God...)

You call my name and you guide me from the battle Moving to your flame, through the darkness I must travel
With every step that I take getting harder
All the mistakes that I made moving farther
Every teardrop lost to the ground
All of the up outweigh the down

Out in the rain
Feeling it falling from the sky
Washing away the pain
Catching tears falling from your eyes
Like messages from God (God...)
Like messages from God (God...)

Let go of your pain
Feel it fall from your eyes
Step out in the rain
Feel it falling from the sky
Let go of your pain
Feel it fall from your life
Step out in the rain
Feel it falling from the sky,

Out in the rain
Feeling it falling from the sky
Washing away the pain

Catching tears falling from your eyes
Like messages from God (God...)
Like messages from God (God...)
Like messages from God (God...)
Your tears they say it all
Like the way you let them fall
Like messages from God!
