Broken, feel like my heart's been cut open.
I'm struggling, but I'm coping, choking on what you've done.
Dialing your number, but I never seem to call.
Writing another unsent message on my phone.
Finally I give up, it's not like we were in love.

But I can't stop seeing you, kissing him out in open view.
What the hell am I supposed to do?
Stand and watch you make me a fool.
I'm going crazy.
Sleepless since the night you betrayed me.
Like a movie in my mind, it keeps playing.
And my heart is breaking.

Confused by feelings I never knew I had.
You bruised my ego, and now I understand.
This wound will heal, and my heart is on the mend.

Wish I could stop seeing you, holding him out in open
view.
What the hell am I supposed to do?
Stand and watch you make me a fool.
I'm going crazy.
Sleepless since the night you betrayed me.
Like a movie in my mind, it keeps playing.
And my heart is breaking.

It's too late the damage is done.
Living out that night like a re-run.
I think I'm going insane.
Got me stuck on replay.
I'm stuck on replay.

No I never wanted to feel this way.
Let you inside my brain, and you've made me pay.
How could I ever let you close to me?
It was a stupid mistake...

Now I'm going crazy.

Sleepless since the night you betrayed me.
Like a movie in my mind, it keeps playing.
And my heart is breaking.

It's too late the damage is done.
Living out that night like a re-run.
I think I'm going insane.
Got me stuck on replay.

It's playing on my mind.
It's playing on my mind.
It's playing over and over.
Playing over and over.
Playing on my mind.
You got me stuck on replay.
I'm stuck on replay.
I'm stuck on replay.
