(Verse 1)

Ladies take to cowboy like kids take to clown
They both love them without asking why There's those come on looks and laughter but when it's time for leaving town Seems nobody cares enough to cry

(Chorus)

Everybody loves cowboys and clowns
You're everybody's hero for just a little while
But when the goodbye are said and the spot light goes
dead
There's no one left to cares to hang around to love the cowboys and clowns

(Verse 2)

Cowboys love candlelight and lacy things on ladies
A kid loves carousels and funny painted faces But there's no balloons no sweet perfume when midnight brings you down
No one to hold you close when the morning comes around

(Chorus)

Everybody loves cowboys and clowns
You're everybody's hero for just a little while
cowboys and clowns

(Cowboys and clowns) cowboys and clowns
(Cowboys and clowns) cowboys and clowns
(Cowboys and clowns) cowboys and clowns
(Cowboys and clowns) cowboys and clowns
