REMEMBER TO REMIND ME (I'M LEAVING)

Writers Charles Quillen and Johnny Russell

You seem to know all the ways to hurt me ou drag me down as only you can I've choked on my pride till I filled up inside
And once again I've taken all I can stand Remember to remind me I'm leaving it seems I always forget
Remember to remind me I'm leaving someday I may make it yet
I tell myself that today I'll be going
I pack my bags and rehearse what I'll say
But when you walk in it's I love you all over again
And I can't go I'll put it off one more day
Remember to remind me I'm leaving...
Someday I may make it yet
