I never thought this day would ever come
And never saw a sign
I'd trade the left down for good bye
But I'm running out of time

I face the moonlight on my own
I still remember that night
Found the broken I was torn
I nearly crossed my line

Since you went away
I've been standing on the edge of my life
Thinking what it is I should do
I've been dreaming of another time
Since you went away

I never had the right to call it love
I was never on your mind
You never had a hand that I could hold
They were frozen everytime

Did you ever feel like we moved on
Or was I the only one
Act away without a key

A prisoner to you

Since you went away
I've been standing on the edge of my life
Thinking what it is I should do
I've been dreaming of another time

Since you went away
I've been drowning in a river of pain
Thinking what it is I should do
I've been holding on you everything
Since you went away

Since you went away
I've been standing on the edge of my life
Thinking what it is I should do

I've been dreaming of another time

Since you went away
I've been drowning in a river of pain
Thinking what it is I should do
I've been holding on you everything
Since you went away
