I'm in Minnesota again for the winter
I'm in Minnesota again for the winter

I didn't come for ice fishin', I didn't come for duck
Huntin'
I'm not Scandinavian or in search of Paul Bunyan

I came for the taper
I came for the tapeworm
Well, I came to get better

I'm in Minnesota again for the winter
The thought of ten thousand lakes makes me feel smaller

I didn't come for ice fishin', I didn't come for duck

Huntin'
I'm not Scandinavian or in search of Paul Bunyan
I'm no fan of the vikings or sub-zero windchills
Or drifts bigger than buildings or running on treadmills
But I'm optimistic, but I'm off to Mystic Cause I'm feelin lucky

I'm in Minnesota again for the winter
The thought of ten thousand lakes makes me feel
smaller
The thought of ten thousand lakes makes me feel...
Well, it makes me feel weaker
