I've been nervous cutting the odds.
I know I'll never write to return
When all my friends are lying here.
All along, nothing's wrong.
I'm just living out my life.
With the best days behind,
I used to be a hero living on the countryside.
Well, I guess something's wrong.

I know I won't survive.
I'm heading for a dream I can't realize,
And everything is on my bad side.
You know I can't deny.
I'm hoping for a dream I won't realize,
And everyone gets on my bad side.

On my bad side.
You know I can't deny.
On my bad side.

I know I won't survive.
I'm heading for a dream I can't realize,
And everything is on my bad side.
You know I can't deny.
I'm hoping for a dream I won't realize,
And everyone gets on my bad side.
On my bad side.
