Throw my cast to the wind, hang my tears out on the line

As for the love you gave me, I'll keep it in mind

All our troubles I know, were mostly of our own design
These are the words you told me, I'll keep it in mind

All the love, all the days, it wasn't enough
All the pain, all the faith, it wouldn't rise above

I don't mind if I do, let my burden fall behind Head for a new tomorrow, keep it in sight

All the love, all the days, it wasn't enough
All the pain, all the faith, it wouldn't rise above

Throw my cast to the wind, hang my tears outside to dry
As for the love you gave me, I'll keep it in mind

Thanks for the love that saved me, I'll keep it in mind
I'll keep it in mind, keep it in mind, oh
