Eins, zwei, drei, vier!!
He sits and he dreams of fame
All he produces is rather tame
He wants to influence the world
But he's never gonna make his name 'cause
He's a dreamer, he knows what he wants
He's a dreamer but it's never gonna work
His life revolves around his dreams
He lives for nothing else, it seems
He wants the world to fall at his feet
When will he wake up when will he see that
He's a dreamer, he knows what he wants
He's a dreamer but it's never gonna work
He's a dreamer (Yeah, yeah, yeah) etc..
