"The Hangover"

I had a lot to drink last night
I almost got into a fight
And something doesn't feel right about it
I woke up this morning feeling rough
I knew my day was gonna be tough
And I have had enough, or have I?

I wish I could be sober
When I'm feeling hungover
I know I'll be winning when my ceiling isn't spinning yeah, yeah!

It's really getting to my brain
I'm tired of waking up in pain
I swear I'll never drink again, but will I?

I wish I could be sober
When I'm feeling hungover
I know I'll be winning when my ceiling isn't spinning
yeah, yeah!
