When I'm sad when all is quiet
When I have a shitty day
I realize I have nothing
And I feel so insane
I feel so insane

When I need a friend to help me
But I've got shitty friends
I realize I have nothing
I talk to myself
I talk to myself

I need faith I need faith
And all sorrows will go away, away
O o o o h
You're my salvation

I need faith I need faith to survive
I need faith like a ray of light
I've got faith I've got faith in my life
By the faith I can survive

Thanks to you my star shines
And my sky is clear today
Thanks to you I smile back
I'm no longer the same
I'm no longer the same

Thanks to you I just feel
AT peace with myself
I know what this means
And I pray
I pray that it never ends

I need faith I need faith
And all sorrows will go away, away
O o o o h
You're my salvation

I need faith I need faith to survive
I need faith like a ray of light

I've got faith I've got faith in my life
By the faith I can survive

Faith, faith
And all sorrows will go away
O o o o H
You're my salvation
You're my direction
You're mine
