Rise up all you fallen fighters,
Rise up and take your stands again
Let us fight for a new tomorrow,
Let us fight to save our land
Marching into countless battles,
Skinheads marching side by side
Nothing stronger than the troops of honour,
Nothing stronger than Skinhead pride

Dreadful legions march to kill,
No one escapes the white man's hate
To all of those who cross our path:
We'll bleed'm right down right to their graves
Never will they take us down,
We're born to fight and we will win
Our homeland is our battleground,
For our blood and soil we're fighting still

Chorus:
We are the master breed
Skinheads... We're the elite
We are the law and you know why
White Pride Skinheads will never die

White man now the time has come,
To save your nation from the slumb
The talking days are over now,
To the mighty legions they shall bow
So we are here, we are the new breed,
We keep on fighting alien breed
We keep on fighting for our land,
To this government we shall never bend

Chorus

Rise up all you fallen fighters,
Rise up and take your stands again
Let us fight for a new tomorrow,
Let us fight to save our land
Marching into countless battles,
Skinheads marching side by side

Nothing stronger than the troops of honour,
Nothing stronger than Skinhead pride

Chorus(x2)
