The Riverside

By Jessica Andrews

We spent all night down by the riverside

Laughing at nothing, and talking too much

And the moon looked so bright in your eyes

Before I knew it, I was falling in love

It was too cold too swim,

So we just lied there

On the bank, 'till the brake of day

No, we never went in the water

We were swept away

And the river road

And the night got cold

But you held me close

And you warmed my soul

We spent all night down by the riverside

Wondering how, it all happened so fast

And it sure did take us by surprise

When that morning sun came up at last

It was too cold too swim,

So we just lied there

On the bank, 'till the brake of day
No, we never went in the water
We were swept away
And the river road
And the night got cold
But you held me close
And you warmed my soul
And the river road
And the night got cold
But you held me close
And you warmed my soul
We spent all night down by the riverside
It was too cold too swim,
So we just lied there
On the bank, 'till the brake of day
No, we never went in the water
We were swept away
