"Just For Tonight"

You fake yourself from everyone
And you cry yourself to sleep
Listen for the phone to ring
As you wait impatiently

If you lose heart
Take some of mine just for tonight
Just for tonight

Waiting as time goes by
Wish you were mine
I wish you were mine
Just for tonight

If you lose heart take some of mine
Just for tonight, just for tonight
If you lose heart take some of mine
Just for tonight, just for tonight
If you lose heart take some of mine
Just for tonight, just for tonight

If you lose heart
