Click my heals three times.
Take me anywhere but here.
Whisper the words.
Let's see this clearly.
This is all that reamins, so what more can you take?

As contagious as sin and you're gone.
Did you really want to know what I was about?
Did you really want to know?
Please your feelings out loud (don't fade away).
Blinded by the light, taking it over.
Your silhouette carries me home.

Your star can't leave with the angels above.
Hold them by their wings (all eyes above).
You can change (all eyes above).
You remain like a diamond in the sky.

Did you really want to know what I was about?
Did you really want to know?
Please your feelings out loud (don't fade away).
Blinded by the light, taking it over.
Your silhouette carries me home.

Take me away.
