Wake up, alone
It's been a few years since I left your world
Try out, new things
And tell myself I'll keep it all just clean

And you say
Stay, stay where you want to be
I don't wanna be around you
No more, it's just what I need
And you say
Stay, stay where you want to be
I can't get used to you looking after me, and leave

Because you say
You don't go and you're gone
Because you say
You don't go and you're gone
All the love in the world
Will never replace you
Because you say
You don't go and you're gone

It's what you do, that's what you do

Let go, your face
Let myself know it will never be the same

And you say
Stay, stay where you want to be
Maybe I'll come around here one more time
If it's what I need
And you say
Stay, stay where you want to be
I'm at your front door
Waiting for you to let me in, please

Because you say
You don't go and you're gone
Because you say
You don't go and you're gone
All the love in the world
Will never replace you

Because you say
You don't go and you're gone

It's what you do, that's what you do
It's what you do, that's what you do
It's what you do to me

Because you say
You don't go and you're gone
Because you say
You don't go and you're gone
All the love in the world
Will never replace you
Because you say

It's what you do, that's what you do
