Crazy
Maybe
If it bugs me
Someday

And I never want to be the one to fall, to make you fall
away
You keep on pressure me, pressure me and bring me
down
But I don't know when to stop

What is love, What is love
She's not searching for rainbows
What is love
I go where ever the wind blows
What is love
Someone I can talk to every night
Someone I can talk to every night

The city
Party
A Taxi
I'm leaving

And I never want to be the one to fall, to make you fall
down
But I don't know when to stop

What is love, What is love
She's not searching for rainbows
What is love
I go where ever the wind blows
What is love
Someone I can talk to every night
Someone I can talk to every night

Do you feel in love?
Would you feel in love if the pressure makes us?
Do you feel in love?
Would you feel in love if the pressure makes us?

Because it's you, you, you
You fit me perfectly
It's always me me me
Cast into the sea
If we can see this through
In perfect symmetry
It was love

What is love, What is love
She's not searching for rainbows
What is love
I go where ever the wind blows
What is love
Someone I can talk to every night
Someone I can talk to every night

What is love, What is love
What is love
I go where ever the wind blows
What is love
Someone I can talk to every night
Someone I can talk to every night
Someone I can talk to every night
Someone I can talk to every night
What is love
