When I first found this place
I thought it would be like all the places.
The people looked oh so strange
And they all preached unity
I thought it could be so much fun
And then one day I brought my band along
And no one there accepted them
Now it's them who are strange
Now who's fucking normal?

Long hair, short hair, no hair at all
Skinny, fat, short or tall
All the people are the same

So raise your pride and show no shame.
People may say, it's all of you
But just remember who is who
Notice the good from the bad
Cause you first hand thoughts
Could just be a fad.

Notice the people with nothing good to say
Laughing at others in every way
You laugh along with no concern
But now turn your back cause it's your turn.
