Talking behind my back
Stretching the truth,
Why can't you keep your mouth shut?
What do I have to do
To get you off my back
And keep you away?,
When you don't really listen to
A thing that I say

Maybe one day you'll finally see
You can talk your shit to anyone
But keep your ass away from me.

Every moment in my life's
Written on a page
Making every story known
Like on some fucking stage
Violent situation starting to bust
To never know again
Just who I can trust.
