"Wisdom"

Wisdom in chains
Unlocked too late

They say it's hard to keep a good man down
But you can cripple him til he becomes a bad man
Keep him searching through lost and found
No, it's not hard to keep a good man down

Sooner or later I'll be back around.
It's hard when things aint what they seem.

Someone along the line turned faith into fake
And shattered the dream

I'll take anything you've got to offer
You know how it is when times are tough
Anything to make me feel better
Cause sometimes feeling good is good enough

In chains too long, set free too late - wisdom
