[Tommy "The Touch" Wolf:]

Driving faster, speeding back to her
Now our hearts are getting closer
Hold tight through the night before we come undone...
(Before we come undone)
Well this pumping headache won't leave me alone...
Oh, no

Didn't have to pretend, pretend what I'm feeling
All the colours are bright, too bright to steer...

I want to get back and never ever have to live this way
Life is more than this and you know it so well
I want to get back and never ever have to leave these
rails
There is so much left that I have to say and you know it so well

Life keeps turning, spinning out of time
Way beyond the point of no return, yeah
Drifting, creeping here between these walls
All I ever believed in is lost and gone... Yeah... (Can you see what I see?)

We keep rolling the dice, the karma was on to me
Didn't know God was playing with my life

I want to get back and never ever have to live this way
Life is more than this and you know it so well
I want to get back and never ever have to leave these
rails
There is so much left that I have to say to you

[Rev. Mike "The Faith" Simmons:]

You reveal the secrets

[Tommy:]

(I reveal the secrets...)

Mike:

I would never share them...

[Tommy:]

(You've got to share them with me...)

Mike:
I just can't believe it
(I just can't believe it)
[Tommy's Mind:]
No way I'm going to share it with you...

[Tommy:]
Got to dig deeper, I don't know you so well
All it takes is a little touch
Can you feel the shock when our hands finally meet?
You should see what I see...

Past and future... Open pages...

I was falling on the Black Ice
When I lost and found a better way
There's a hidden spot in our minds
Awakened by a mistake
... You keep going until you find me
... You keep going until you find me

I want to get back and never ever have to live this way
Life is more than this and you know it so well... (And you know so well...)
I want to get back and never ever have to leave these
rails
There is so much left that I have to say

I want to get back and never ever have to live this way
(Never gonna live this way...)
Life is more than this and you know it so well... (And you know so well...)
I want to get back and never ever have to leave these
rails
There is so much left that I have to say to you

[Mike:]
You reveal the secrets
[Mike:]
I would never share them
[Mike:]
I just can't believe it

[Tommy:]
Got to dig deeper, now I know you so well
All it takes is a little touch
Can you feel the shock when our hands finally meet?
You should see what I see

[Tommy's Mind:]
My head keeps spinning, all I see is dark

Everything fades... Fades to black...
