When I wake and the sky seems to break and the bang in my head is my heart just trying to keep me alive
Then I rise and the room starts to shake,
And I'm walking on glass trying to remember Trying to get straight when all I wanna do is cut back the tape
Replay last night with you Feel what its like to flip out, be surrounded by sounds of the crowd,
Carry me away now

I don't know why, we're in this situation
And I don't, know how there's something missing

[Chorus]

No point living when you don't know you're alive, follow you, 'cos only you take me up this high I don't need, no complications when I only want to fly Cos its beautiful just thinking with you
Take me on a joyride

Take me on a joyride.

I like the way you abuse my mind Abuse me all the time, paranoid you're gonna leave me behind

Resonate like a bass when you pulling my strings ever tighter
Think I'm overheating
Barely nineteen, but you know what I mean
When I fail to describe this place where I've been living Trying to stay strong when you're dragging me on with complete disregard for anything that's wrong, yeah

[Bridge]

[Chorus]

Look at my face, what have you done,

Do you see yourself in my reflection Tumbling down, out of control Nothing to lose, this is where it came from Follow you 'cos only you could take me up this high

I Don't need no complications when I only wanna fly Cause its beautiful just thinking with you
Take me on a joyride
Take me on a joyride
Take me on a joyride
nah nah nah nah nah, nah nah nah nah nah, nah nah naaaah.

Take me on a, joyride.
