So Long

Our bags are waiting by the door
I took the phot off the wall
We won't meet here anymore
Like so many times before
This time tomorrow we'll be gone
Can't find no peace, we're on the run
Take whatever comes at all

My head id filled with shots of all of you
Laughs about things that we used to do
One last time before we see this through

(Chorus)

So long my friends
Drain your glass and fill them onece again
Tonight will be ourmemory
So long my friends
Time has come for us to move along
But I don't see this as the end

Another face another name
No two places look the same
Everything is bound to change
Untill we meet again
We're never sure what we call home
I can't settledown for long
The glass is greener anywhere

Out of time and in too deep
We're psychotic from the lack of sleep but we're
Staying up so we can saygoodbye

(Repeat Chorus)

Cause I know that one day
We'll all be face to face again
Till then let's fly into tomorrow
Cause nothing no nothing
Will ever change what we've been through

So let's just keep on moving on and on and on and on

Our bags are waiting by the door
I took the phot off the wall
We won't meet here anymore
My head is filles with shots of all of you
Laughs about things that we used to do
One last time before we see this through
