The hourglass is broken.
I don't know the time.
Been skydiving
And I missed the signs.

I hear you calling
From the forest wild.
Contemplate the moment.
I'm no longer a child.

KertosÃe:
I will fly till the dawn
And I will land with grace.
I've been drifting so long
And I miss your taste.

Watch me standing
Where the worlds collide

Upon the rocks,
Beneath the mountains high.
So high.

Here's to new beginnings
Toast our life.
Fireworks singing.
Celebrate tonight.

KertosÃe

I'm running faster than ever before
Caught up in slow motion
I hear you laughing and I want more
Let me slip to your ocean

KertosÃe
