If your world is crashing down
You're feeling lost in your hometown
Would you stay?
Would you frown?

Life is good
You don't know now
You feel the pain
But love's around
Although the rain
Keeps pouring down

If you run
I run with you
I'll be there
Just like the sun
If you run
I run with you
Everywhere
Just like the sun

When my world is crashing down
I like to take a walk downtown
Should I stay?
Should I frown?

I don't know now
The reason why
Since I met you
I feel alive
Oh yeah so alive

I see in your face
You don't wanna go
Please tell me your name
I have to know
