For my dreams I will
Spend so many days
Spend so many nights
Just to try to be
In peace with myself
Free so deep inside
Now I take the chance
I'm stopping to be blind

I don't wanna cry eternally
I open my eyes honestly
I feel your true love
Burning down on me

You push me up to the sky
You make me feel so alive
When I'm with you
I want to share my life

Now I take time
Time to live my life
With my rainy days
And you my sunshine
Now I wanna tell
You every day and night
I wanna show you
My hearts real inside
