My hands are tired
But my eyes are open
This modern denial

Has me broken

Nothing mystical

No hullabaloo
Just chemicals

And noone looking down on you

What am I thinking? (If you're so sure it's rational) While the worlds shrinking? (but that don't make it logical)
What am I thinking? (If you say I'm just an animal)
I feel like I'm sinking (you can't explain away the way I feel!)

You're just pushing me down, pushing me down,
pushing me down
(They tell you 'Trust your head, be like men' but never feel like you're good enough)
You're just crushing me down, crushing me down,
crushing me down
(They wana take our light, make us fight, but never cry
for the ones you love!)

(I'll be your warrior, warrior)

You're taking over
And I'm feeling small
When I was a child

I knew it all

Nothing magical

No hologram behind the door
Just a chain reaction

But I know I'm made for more!

What am I thinking? (If you're so sure it's rational)
While the worlds shrinking? (but that don't make it logical)
What am I thinking? (If you say I'm just an animal)
I feel like I'm sinking (you can't explain away the way I feel!)

And you're just pushing me down, pushing me down,
pushing me down
(They tell you, 'Trust your head, be like men' but never feel like you're good enough)
You keep crushing me down, crushing me down,
crushing me down
(They wanna take our light, make us fight, but never cry for the ones you love!)

And you're just pushing me down, pushing me down,
pushing me down
(You wana change the world, but your girls will be seen and not be heard!)
You just crushing me down, crushing me down,
crushing me down
(They wana take our light, make us fight, but never cry
for the ones you love!)
