I know a girl. She means the world to me.
She's on my mind all of the time but I think she don't know I exist. She don't know I even care.
She don't know I can't resist her.
She don't know I'm always there.
I know a girl. She turned my world upside down.
She's all I need but she don't see me when I'm around.
She don't want me when I'm alone.

And she don't want me to love her for long.
Yesterday's paper is all that I am.
And I'm in love with a pisces tramp.
Yes I'm in love with a pisces tramp.
I know a girl. She got to close to my soul.
She wants to be free. It broke me down but I let her go.
I know a girl
