"Sinnerman"

Won't you set me free before I lose all my love?
Won't you let me be? I'm just trying to get along and sing my song to me.
Gotta get away and find a place to call my home.
Can't hesitate. I might be right or wrong but sometimes wrong will make you see.
Seasons bloom in the winter.
I just wanna live today.
Summer sets over autumn.
It wasn't ever meant to be that way.
Sing me a song Mr. Sinnerman. Won't you help me along this lonely road? Won't you sing me a song Mr. Sinnerman? Won't you help me along?

Now I'm all alone but sometimes that feels good gone so far from home, but I knew I always would.
And I'd wrong that right if I could.
When my path is gone you made fade away
like favorite song but I'll still sing that tune
from the sun to the falling moon
