You are a moonchild and pretty soon child
I've got a feeling that
I'm gonna make you smile forever

If I can
Just give me a sign,
And I'll show you my plan

You are a blue child forever true child you
Know that I tried to paint the skies blue forever

If I can
Just give me a sign,
And I'll show you my plan

Tell me why, you look so sad
Time slips by like grains of sand
Just put your future in my hands

Tell me why, tell me why you look so sad
Time slips by like grains of sand
Just put your future in my hands

You are a moonchild and pretty soon child
I've got a feeling that
I'm gonna make you smile forever
If I can

Just give me a sign and I'll show you my plan
Just show me a smile and I'll show you my plan
Just give me a sign and I'll show you my plan
