Who's that calling way out there?
I've got your signal, loud and clear
In the distance a light is near
Through the night, sharp as a spear

My mind sees all the things my eyes can't see
What are you trying to say to me?

I've got your signal
Feel your signal

Everything seems very strange
And now you're not that far away
I feel so calm, I don't feel fear
Behind that light I know you're there

My ears hear sounds I've never heard before
Tell me what you've really come here for

I've got your signal
Oh, feel your signal

There's a beacon flashing in the distant night
Don't feel time passing right before my eyes

Is my dreaming beyond control?
I feel these movements here below
Is this the end or is there more?
I'll stay suspended for evermore

My eyes hear all the things my heart can't see
What are you trying to do to me? Yeah

I've got your signal
Feel your signal

There's a beacon flashing in the distant sky
Don't feel time passing right before my eyes

Who's that calling from way out there?
Got your signal, loud and clear
In the distance I know you're there

Through the night, sharp as a spear

My mind sees all the things my eyes can't see
What are you trying to say to me?

Well, I've got your signal
Got your signal
Feel your signal
