(Intro)

Throwin' hundreds on you for no reason Know I got a rubberband wrapped around a bunch of bands, for no reason
You climbin' up the pole for one reason,
So I can make it rain now, rain now, stunt on niggas for no reason

(Hook)

It never really mattered too much to me
Your body's just way too dope for me
So I'mma spend this money like you were my girlfriend

(Chorus)

Damn shawty come and get this change
I'm in love with a stripper, T-Pain
Let me love you doooooown
Damn shawty come and get this change
I'm in love with a stripper, T-Pain
Let me love you doooown, love you doooown
Damn shawty come and get this change
I'm in love with a stripper, T-Pain

(Verse)

Ugh, I told her stick to your grind hustler
You beautifully exceptional, professional mind fucker
You're puttin' on a show, and I'm payin' the sponsorship Damn you know you made it when haters payin' you compliments
Accomplishments for you come on a nightly basis
The way you killin' these niggas baby you might be racist
You might be racin' but fuck it that's life, embrace it Success is sweeter than freedom, why live your life complacent

(Hook)

It never really mattered too much to me
Your body's just way too dope for me
So I'mma spend this money like you were my girlfriend

Chorus)

Damn shawty come and get this change
I'm in love with a stripper, T-Pain
Let me love you doooooown
Damn shawty come and get this change
I'm in love with a stripper, T-Pain
Let me love you dooown, love you dooown
Damn shawty come and get this change
I'm in love with a stripper, T-Pain

(Outro)

Ahh... and I'mma make it rain down, rain down
It never really mattered too much to me...
And now you with the King you supposed to be
