I'll take the blame for
Somethin' you don't know
And I am not sure about
(All you want to know)

Just here to leave and
Stop what I begin
Starting over
(And never get the truth)

I'll let you go away
Weither your blaming me or not
What I need is what I've got
I just don't know what I've got

As right as it seems now,
Your here to complicate.
Beg me if you think
(I'll let you forget me. how?)

Just here to keep me
And never let me go
Tell me if you think
(I'll let you forget me. how?)

I'll let you go away
Weither your blaming me or not
What I need is what I've got
I just don't know what I've got

Blaming for so long
Blaming for so long
Blaming for so long
Blaming for so long

Blaming for so long
