Verse 1:

You are the nicest fool of my life, which is runnin' through your heart
You have loly skin and I don't know what do you wanna do
Now you're crazy but you're feelin down
I am crazy cos you're leaving time after time

Ref:

I'm deamon with the broken heart, yeah
Seems there is an open start, yeah
I can not change the world alone
I'm swimming it the open sea
I feel like a melodie
You can see

Verse 2:

Don't waste your time, If you don't wanna see my lovely fool
She can kill you with her smile and all the stuff she do
She said play me like you were, come closer, come faster, I'm truth
Some deamons ran into my head and told me what to do
