"Caged"

I don't want to live in a human world where my kind is
Caged and locked out.
I have no use for human words, and I will swallow the
Hate they brought out.
Come on bitch, give me the keys.
Yeah, I like you better on your knees.
We must come from different worlds.
Believe me boy, I take no orders.
I have no use for human words, always spoken to bring Disorder.
Come on bitch, give me the keys.
Yeah, I like you better on your knees.
Motherfucker, open this cage.
Maybe then I'll leave this place in one piece.
I've been pushed down in a den of small souls.
You're not man enough to open this cage.
